Discoveries, Encounters and Exchanges, 1500 – 1800

Saturday 28th April at 2pm

Talk with Ruth Starr, Lecturer, Arts of Japan, Trinity College Dublin

To tie in with Hanami, the Cherry Blossom Festival, and our Japanese themed Book Club choice we are delighted to welcome Ruth Starr to give this fascinating talk.

From the time Asia and Europe began to discover each other, it was not only the opening up of a new global market but also the beginning of far reaching changes in both continents' tastes and lifestyles, influences that can still be seen today. This talk will explore the dynamic period from the 1500's – 1800 through the fascinating objects that are a legacy of this encounter.

Tai-Chi – talk and demonstration

Friday 27th January at 2pm

Tai-Chi describes a way of life and a system of healing and exercise which combines physical training with spiritual growth and mental discipline. Its history can be traced back to the development of Buddhism circa 500 BC. The philosophies of this practise became very popular and were embraced throughout the East, including China. Come along for the talk and take part in the demonstration (please wear comfortable clothing)

Weekend trip to London

Friday 9th to Sunday 11th March

Join us for visits to the following temporary exhibitions:

Hajj: Journey to the Heart of Islam at the British Museum

One of the five pillars of Islam central to Muslim belief, Hajj is the pilgrimage to Mecca that every Muslim must make at least once in their lifetime if they are able. This major exhibition charts the history of this deeply personal journey.

Royal Manuscripts: The Genius of Illumination at the British Library

The hidden jewel in the British Library's collection is a unique treasure trove of medieval and Renaissance manuscripts assembled by English kings and queens over 700 years.

We will also enjoy private guided tours of the Petrie Museum (one of the greatest collections of Egyptian and Sudanese archaeology in the world) and the fascinating Sir John Soane's Museum.

The price for this trip includes entrance fees and guided tour fees only.

Members are free to make their own travel arrangements. This will allow each person to choose the flights & accommodation that suits them best. Please contact Mary Dowling on (01) 407 0759 to book a place.
